Subject: European Social Innovation Competition – 2016 Impact Prize

Reference: Your application received on 31 August 2016

Project title: Land Sharing

Dear Mr Bizjak & Mr Erjavec,

Further to our evaluation and upon recommendation from an external jury, we regret to inform you that your application is not proposed to receive the 2016 Impact Prize within the framework of the European Social Innovation Competition.

Please find below the general comments given by the jury as well as the mark awarded.

Comments	Score
The jury was impressed at the persistence in the face of many legal issues, but felt that these issues may have hindered project's progress in the last year and limited its ability to achieve impact.	60 / 100

The prize will be presented on October 27th in Brussels. Until this public announcement, we kindly ask you not to share information about the outcome of the evaluation.

Thank you for your repeated interest in the Competition. We hope that you will take part in future actions launched by the Commission.

Yours sincerely,

Sławomir Tokarski
